Why Moses?

- Because he is the model of the Law, it came through him
- Because his life is defined by CHOICES that he made

8

NIV Hebrews 11:24-26

By faith Moses, when he had grown up, refused to be known as the son of Pharaoh's daughter. He chose to be mistreated along with the people of God rather than to enjoy the fleeting pleasures of sin. He regarded disgrace for the sake of Christ as of greater value than the treasures of Egypt, because he was looking ahead to his reward.

9

The Argument of Moses

- The author is appealing to self-righteous people to leave it and join the depraved who seek to make right choices in life, instead of sinful ones

10

The Argument of Moses

- The author is appealing to self-righteous people to leave it and join the depraved who seek to make right choices in life, instead of sinful ones
- To leave legalism by saying – “I am morally bankrupt, I have nothing to offer God – He has everything to offer me. I concede my depravity and embrace Him”

11

The Points

- Faith Provides your Identity, vv.23-26
 - Choices – vv.24-26
 - He refused the titles and perks
 - He embraced the struggle to be identified with God's people
 - He valued the future over the temporal, v.26

12

I Corinthians 1:26-29

Brothers and sisters, think of what you were when you were called. Not many of you were wise by human standards; not many were influential; not many were of noble birth. But God chose the foolish things of the world to shame the wise; God chose the weak things of the world to shame the strong. God chose the lowly things of this world and the despised things—and the things that are not—to nullify the things that are, so that no one may boast before him.
